Case; Feasterville Woman
Defendant

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 27 — Three divorces are among the seven suits filed in the Court of Common Pleas here. One suit terminates in a settlement, and one, a truck-car collision, resulted in a $5,939.55 damage claim.

Rolland W. Reamer, Feasterville, has named Walter Afflerbach, Richlandtown, and Roy H. Napier, Quakertown, the defendants in an action in trespass claiming $5,939.55. The complainant in a statement of claim in the office of Prothonotary Joseph A. Keating, avers that George DiEnno was driving the complainant's car on Route 132 and Sterner's Mill road, near Weisel, December 7, 1948, when it figured in a collision with a truck driven by the defendant, Walter Afflerbach, and owned by Roy H. Napier.

IS CANASTA A FAD?
Canasta has changed almost overnight from a new game fad to torture one's guests with to a commercialized something. Ely Culbertson, who made a fortune out of commercializing contract bridge — and, to do him justice, did a great deal to raise standards of bidding and play — is just one of a number of modern-day Hoyle's to rush into print with a book on how to play Canasta. Mr. Culbertson is now involved in a complicated row with other self-styled experts.
That's no man-bites-dog item. If Culbertson ever turned out to be missing, the first place to look for him would be in the center of the hottest row over who is the best card player and authority. Years ago he challenged all comers to a bridge match for large stakes. He won. Now he is talking an equally good game of Canasta.
But something new has been added. He is running down the game. He calls it a jazzed-up form of gin rummy that a child could play, and follows up with the non sequitur that therefore he, Culbertson, can lick Oswald Jacoby or anybody else at it, two-handed.
It is good to hear somebody put in a bad word for Canasta. Bridge should be good enough for anybody who feels in the mood to avoid conversation and glare at his or her guests over a clutch of cards. Bridge is a game which doesn't require at least 10 fingers on each hand, gets along nicely without a deck of 106 cards, jokers, wild deuces, cockeyed treys and a set of changing rules that would drive a Philadelphia lawyer dizzy.

"Toy Day" was recently held in a first grade room in the Croydon School. Each child brought a toy to show to the class and explain how it worked (if it were a mechanical toy). As the toys were exhibited stories began to be told about them. The teacher printed each story on large paper. Interest was still great when it was suggested by one of the children to illustrate the stories. The young authors became painters and then bookbinders after they assembled their works. They decided to call their manuscript "Our Story Book About Toys."

URGENT OUTLAWING OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE 'ADS'
The Women's Christian Temperance Union members met at the home of Mrs. Harry T. Neher, Radeliffe street, Tuesday evening. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. William Hakea. All members were urged to contact their representatives in Washington, D. C., urging them to vote for bills to outlaw alcoholic beverage advertising and broad-casting.
The program of the evening was centered around the theme "Civic Responsibility," being led by Mrs. Sherman Bailey. An article "Our Liquor-Soaked Movies" by "Jim-mie" Fidler was read. Also presented was an article by Elizabeth P. Anderson, "We Can Do Something About It!" This pointed out that the "cost" of controlling liquor laws "is more than that of enforcing the 18th Amendment." From a far-west newspaper came the quotation: "Every 25-cent drink costs the taxpayer five cents. Every third policeman is necessary to take care of drink's results. It costs $45 to arrest a drunk. License fees do not pay for these arrests, nor for the support of prisoners, nor for the treatment of alcoholics, nor for the support of the drunks' wives and children, nor for damage caused by drunks to persons and property. This is why it costs Los Angeles six times as much to handle drunks as the licenses provide." "You and I must pay one-fifth of the country's drink bill, even if we never touch a drop of it."
Several rules were given for getting good legislation: (1) Start at the polls—the Primaries; (2) Keep in close touch with representatives; (3) Exercise the right of petition; (4) Keep posted by reading the things that are going on in the legislatures; (5) Write letters to local newspapers, letting others know how you stand.
A social time followed, with the welcoming of visitors and new members.

"Toy Day" was recently held in a first grade room in the Croydon School. Each child brought a toy to show to the class and explain how it worked (if it were a mechanical toy). As the toys were exhibited stories began to be told about them. The teacher printed each story on large paper. Interest was still great when it was suggested by one of the children to illustrate the stories. The young authors became painters and then bookbinders after they assembled their works. They decided to call their manuscript "Our Story Book About Toys."

URGENT OUTLAWING OF ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE 'ADS'
The Women's Christian Temperance Union members met at the home of Mrs. Harry T. Neher, Radeliffe street, Tuesday evening. The business session was presided over by the president, Mrs. William Hakea. All members were urged to contact their representatives in Washington, D. C., urging them to vote for bills to outlaw alcoholic beverage advertising and broad-casting.
The program of the evening was centered around the theme "Civic Responsibility," being led by Mrs. Sherman Bailey. An article "Our Liquor-Soaked Movies" by "Jim-mie" Fidler was read. Also presented was an article by Elizabeth P. Anderson, "We Can Do Something About It!" This pointed out that the "cost" of controlling liquor laws "is more than that of enforcing the 18th Amendment." From a far-west newspaper came the quotation: "Every 25-cent drink costs the taxpayer five cents. Every third policeman is necessary to take care of drink's results. It costs $45 to arrest a drunk. License fees do not pay for these arrests, nor for the support of prisoners, nor for the treatment of alcoholics, nor for the support of the drunks' wives and children, nor for damage caused by drunks to persons and property. This is why it costs Los Angeles six times as much to handle drunks as the licenses provide." "You and I must pay one-fifth of the country's drink bill, even if we never touch a drop of it."
Several rules were given for getting good legislation: (1) Start at the polls—the Primaries; (2) Keep in close touch with representatives; (3) Exercise the right of petition; (4) Keep posted by reading the things that are going on in the legislatures; (5) Write letters to local newspapers, letting others know how you stand.
A social time followed, with the welcoming of visitors and new members.

Why Should a Dollar's Worth of Travel Continue to Cost You $1¹⁵?

"IS THIS TRIP NECESSARY?" you were asked in 1941, when every inch of space was needed for troops and war supplies.

To discourage travel then, a tax was added on your travel dollar, a tax that grew to 15% during the war. The Federal Government collected it through the railroads. The Government still collects it, though your travel need not be rationed now.

Today, the original purpose of this tax is as obsolete as an Air Warden's helmet. But, four years after the war's end, YOU are still paying the Government at the rate of $250,000,000 a year in travel tax.

And, of the billion and three quarters collected since 1941, over half came out of your pocket after the green light on travel went on again.

You don't have food rationing today... you don't have gasoline rationing today.

Yet, a very real brake is still being put on travel. On a coach trip from New York to Chicago, for example, YOU are still paying $4.61 in Federal tax.

And the same with the goods that are shipped to your home community. On every dollar you pay for freight, you pay the Government an extra 3 cents (4¢ a ton on coal). That means YOU are still paying over $300,000,000 a year—freight tax alone.

This tax should be repealed NOW. There is no longer any reason you should pay $1.15 for every dollar's worth of travel... $1.03 for every dollar of railroad freight.

anticipated that as a whole, Bucks County school districts would receive, in the future, reduced state aid and they therefore looked for ways to improve the collection of local taxes. From all parts of the county, directors reported that there should be a better system of collection of per capita taxes. The directors from Bensalem Township reported that they were satisfied with the success secured by the appointment of a delinquent tax collector. Many directors also pointed out the need for an improved list of residents in their districts who are subject to per capita taxes. It was indicated that in 90% of the districts in the county, as many as 20% of the residents escaped the per capita levy. Bensalem reported that the school directors had added at least 2000 names to the assessor's list while Lower Southampton reported that within two weeks they secured an additional 900 names. County Superintendent Boehm reported that in one district the amount of increase of per capita taxes coming from the names added to the list by the school board is paying for the entire school district's share of a new 8 room elementary school building.

A considerable time was given to the discussion of new taxes. All of the school boards levying a special personal tax recommended it to the other boards for their consideration. The directors in many districts reported that the large turnover of new properties was in part responsible for their reduced reimbursement fraction and as a result, it was felt that the school boards in those districts should consider a 1% real estate tax transfer levy. William Clifton from Bristol Township reported that their real estate transfer tax levy brought in considerable school revenue, currently at $2000 a month. Walter Miller, regional superintendent of Bristol Township, reported that they had no difficulty in collecting the taxes. Dr. W. A. Roberts, of Newtown Borough, past president of the State School Directors Association, and Coleman Morgan of Morrisville, were named to press proposals from Bucks County at the February meeting of the Pennsylvania State School Directors' Association meeting at Harrisburg. Simon Gabel, president of the Deep Run Valley Board, who is the chairman of the Bucks County Legislative Committee, will bring the Bucks County program officially before the State School Directors Association.

The following members of the Bucks County Committee on Legislation were present at the meeting: Warren Bietach, Pennsylvania; Dr. Fred Scull, Neshaminy; William Clifton, Bristol Township; Louis F. Pfaff, Tohickon Valley.

Others present from this area were: Robert B. VanSant, Norman C. Gaugler, J. Maurice Tomlinson, Bensalem Township; Dr. J. Fred Scull, Dr. Oliver S. Heckman, Kenneth Comly, Neshaminy.

Sportsmen's Briefs

By JOE ELBERSON

1950 game seasons . . . at its annual meeting in Harrisburg recently, the Pennsylvania Game Commission unanimously re-elected its incumbent officers. Those who will head the Commission in 1950 are: Ross L. Leffler, Pittsburgh, president; Robert Lambertson, Franklin, vice-president; Thomas D. Frye, Camp Hill, secretary.

At this meeting, these opening dates for the 1950 game seasons were set: Small game, November 1; bear, November 13; deer, November 27. This action was taken at the January meeting in the interest of hunters who must request vacation periods early. The length of seasons and bag limits will not be set until the July meeting of the Commission.

New officers . . . Leroy Stackhouse, long active in conservation and local sportsmen's organizations, was elected president of the Edgely Rod & Gun Club Tuesday evening when members assembled in the meeting room of the Edgely Community Building. He succeeds retiring chairman, Howard Binliff.

The club also elected Howard Hilgendorf as vice-president, while Charles Phillips was named to the post of secretary. Samuel Wellings was re-elected to the position of treasurer.

Preliminary plans for an outstanding entertainment program were discussed at the meeting. The program has been tentatively scheduled for February 28, but final announcement will be made at a later date.

Three at a time . . . it was quite a thrill for me to witness the sight which met my eyes last Saturday morning, after Harry Oliver and Harmon Richardson tapped on my office window and beckoned me across the street. Sitting there were two small trucks. In one was a pack of fox hounds. In the other were three foxes—2 grays and a red—the results of a Saturday morning fox hunt by Oliver and Richardson.

It was delicious . . . perhaps it was out of sheer pity (after learning of my own sad personal experiences on a deer hunting trip on December 10th), or perhaps it was out of sympathy, or perhaps it was with the same air of good fellowship and good sportsmanship which prevailed Tuesday evening when I sat down to a venison dinner with a group of deer hunters and their better halves and guests, that gained me an invitation to that dinner.

It all began several weeks ago when Otto Grupp, Jr., asked me to join with his camp group (some twenty strong) at a venison dinner at the Elks' Home. His camp had recorded one kill, and instead of splitting up the buck they agreed on the dinner. As a matter of fact, they follow this program every year.

Many venison dinners have been placed before me, but I never have been privileged to enjoy a finer one than that of Tuesday evening. I ate one platter, and then a second, and then kept right on eating.

Fun it was, too, to see friends who haven't crossed my path in months. There was Ed Dyer, Harry Vansant, Bill Mende, Les Davis, Charlie Rathke and others. And to top off the dinner Rathke and Grupp put on some very realistic acts which recalled to members of the camp many of the pleasant memories and episodes of December, 1949. This was followed by some mighty fine movies which were presented by Clarence Winter.

Beaver facts . . . beavers have a specialized, long-nailed toe attached to the inside edge of each hind foot. With it they comb their fur, which is almost waterproof.

Worth more than a buck . . .

"A Conservation Handbook" This book is a very important contribution to the conservation movement. It is concise, complete and factually correct. Written by Samuel H. Ordway, Jr., it gives easily understood definitions of the many phrases used in land, forest, range, water and wildlife management and devotes chapters to parks and wilderness areas, as well as one on the concept of natural resources generally. It is published by the Conservation Foundation, 30 East 40th Street, New York 16, New York. The price of $1.00 involves no profit to the publisher. It is a worthy contribution to the cause and worth far more than the modest price asked.

Shoot . . . there will be a practice bluecock shoot over the Newportville Rod & Gun Club traps this Sunday, beginning at 1 p. m. All shooters are welcome. H. Ely, Cornwells Heights, had high gun in the shoot held by the club on January 15, with a score of 21. J. Pettitt was second with a 20, while C. Confer posted a 19 out of 25. I. Book and R. Hinely each turned in scores of 17.

BRISTOL HIGH TO OPPOSE BULLDOGS IN GAME TONIGHT

With the Lower Bucks County League lead at stake, the Bristol High and Morrisville High basketball teams will clash for the 45th time tonight on the Robert Morris high school floor, Morrisville, at nine o'clock. The junior varsity game between the two schools will get under way at 7:30 o'clock.

In their 44 meetings, Bristol has won 27 times and Morrisville 17. Last season, the teams met three times, beating each other during the regular season and Bristol winning a playoff game for the title.

According to reports, Morrisville has the best passing team in years. Coach "Jim" Doheny had trouble at the start of the season but now his cohorts have hit their stride, winning four games in succession. The teams that have recently bowed to the Bulldogs were: George School, Hightstown, Pennsbury, and Bensalem.

Doheny's team also played several close games earlier in the year, losing to St. John's Catholic High by two points and dropping the Trenton Catholic game in the last three minutes. Morrisville's record to date is six victories and seven losses.

"Johnny" Marcucci, Ray Johnson, "Reds" Woodruff, "Aces" Henley, and Clyde Lawson will be Morrisville's starting array, with "Jim" Welsh, "Jim" Piscopal, and "Mike" Zaack certain to see action.

Coach Jerry Bloom, whose Warriors have won six and lost four, intends to start "Reds" Condit and Joe Pindar as forwards, Frank Ritch at center, with Frank Barbetta and "Vic" Cauti as guards.

Morrisville's Jayvees have won eight games and lost five. Coach McClister's Junior Varsity's record is seven wins and four defeats.

BENSALEM HAS CHANCE TO EVEN ITS RECORD

CORNWELLS HEIGHTS, Jan. 28 —Bensalem Township has a chance to even its season's record tonight when it meets St. Francis Vocational School. The junior varsity teams of the schools will battle in the first game, starting at 7:30 o'clock. Coach "Johnny" Messenger's min-lions have won three games and lost four and if successful over St. Francis will bring their mark to a 500 average.

The Owls showed a vast improvement in the Alumni tilt Tuesday night. The triumph brought a halt to a four-game losing streak of the Cornwells Heights boys. "Bob" Whitfield, "Al" Bader, "Walt" Smith, "Eddie" Oliver, and John Bowman may draw the starting assignment from Coach Messenger.

St. Francis has won four games and lost two thus far this season.

SPORTS NIGHT IS BEING ARRANGED

A "Sports Night" program is being arranged by the coaches of the Bristol High School. Featuring the program will be two girls' basketball games, wrestling matches, and a dance.

The date set for the affair is Saturday night, February 4, with the first basketball game starting at 7:30 o'clock. Coach Barbara Yerkes has announced that the quarters of the games may be cut to six minutes so that everything may go off on the time scheduled.

Miss Yerkes, girls' coach, has arranged for her varsity and junior varsity lassies to play two teams from the Alumnae. Mrs. Charles Quigley, Bath Road, is contacting players for the Alumnae teams.

Miss Yerkes has selected the following girls as her varsity team: Margaret Adams, Shirley Morrell, Doris Keers, Violet Heath, Marjorie Gill, "Jackie" Gilardi, Julia Zanni, Ethel Villas, Eleanor Timko, Betty Raub, Joan Braker, and Dot Bailey.

Mrs. Quigley is expected to announce her players early next week. Wrestling is the sport being revived at the local institution by Coach Harold Ferguson. Coach Ferguson has done wonders with his team within the short time he has been developing them. Last week, the Warriors' wrestling team was very impressive in a practice match with Lower Merion.

Athletic Director Harry McClister and his assistant, Jerry Bloom, are making efforts to secure the Trenton Catholic High wrestling team to come here for the occasion. The dance, which will follow the wrestling matches, will be by recorded music.

A small fee will be charged for the "Sports Night" occasion.

SPORT NOTES

Managers and directors of the Bristol Basketball League have decided to ignore the controversial two-minute rule. They have decided to play the final two minutes according to the 1948-49 rules.

"Benny" Samsel, who is conditioning himself by playing basketball with the Rohm & Haas team in the local league, intends to pitch for the York team this coming baseball season.

An automobile accident has hurt the chances of the Tullytown team in the Bristol League. "Kenny" Parr and Dick Anderson have both been sidelined as the result of the mishap.

Morrisville and Bristol are tied for first place in the Lower Bucks League. If scores mean anything, Morrisville should be favored over the Warriors for the Bulldogs rolled in 60 points against Bensalem while Bristol barely escaped with a victory. The Morrisville-Bensalem score was 60-35.

"Ed" Woodrow, Trenton Catholic tackle who played football against Bristol last season, has been chosen on the third team of an all-prep school players' team selected by a nation-wide magazine.

Fans of this section should not miss seeing the Allentown High team in action when it comes to Bristol on February 24th. This team, rated as one of the PIAA's best in the east, is about certain to go into the final playoffs.

One of the assistant coaches at Allentown said: "If we don't win the championship this season, we are certain to win next year." The reason—only two of the players on this season's squad are seniors.

The Allentown Palestra can seat 2,200 fans and the fans of that city certainly back their school team.

The Bristol-Allentown game was broadcast over Allentown's radio station, WSN.
